GENERAL SALES CONDITIONS

Article 1: Sale offers

At any given time the CIETA site makes a commercial proposal to sell goods and services which fall under both general and specific sales conditions, and which is not legally considered a permanent offer. The CIETA reserves the right to withdraw any product or service, or to cancel a training session.

Article 2: Orders

Orders addressed to the CIETA are considered final only after confirmation of the order by the CIETA in one of the following ways: postal mail, e-mail, telephone or fax.

The CIETA reserves the right to cancel or suspend any order emanating from a client with whom there is a litigation regarding payment of a previous order, for as long as the litigious case is not resolved.

The CIETA reserves the right not to record a payment or not to confirm an order for whatever reason.

Completing the order form available on <http://www.cieta-textiles.org> and sending that form to the CIETA entails full and complete acceptance of the present sales conditions, which alone will apply to the contract concluded thereby.

Article 3: Prices-methods of payment-risks transfer

Prices indicated on the site are final. They include tax and are ruled by French legislation. Transport costs are additional.

Prices may be modified at any moment without prior notice.

Goods must be paid for in euros or in US dollars, by cheque, postal order or bank transfer. Any bank charges resulting from the payment are chargeable to the client.

Goods delivered remain the property of the CIETA until payment is complete.

Article 4: Invoice

The invoice is sent by the CIETA to the address indicated on the order. It is drawn up according to the current tariff at the time the order is made. The CIETA accepts no liability for any errors.

Article 5: Transport and delivery

Material goods are delivered by post or by an express carrier. Delivery times are given as an indication only. The CIETA cannot be held responsible for transport delays.

Goods must be checked by the client at the time of delivery. Any reservation should be indicated on the delivery docket presented by the carrier or can be addressed directly to the CIETA within 48 hours. Goods should be returned in their original packaging. The CIETA pledges to take back, exchange or reimburse faulty goods, however without obligation to pay damages. Return costs to the CIETA and redelivery to the client are chargeable to the CIETA.

Article 6: Law applicable and jurisdiction

French law will apply.

Any litigation falls within the sole competence of the Court of Commerce of Lyon, where the CIETA registered offices are located.
